President Wilson, by a proclamation issued Saturday, placed German and Austrian women in the United States under the same restrictions as have prevailed for male enemy aliens. These restrictions are applicable only to women more than 14 years old, who have not been naturalized by their own or their male relatives' declarations of citizenship. German women have been ordered to leave the District of Columbia.

SOLDIERS EN ROUTE SOUTH PASS PARIS.

A special train of twelve day coaches, baggage and dining cars, en route from a Northern cantonment to a military camp somewhere in the South, passed through Paris Wednesday morning.

The soldiers were members of a Wisconsin regiment, largely recruited from Milwaukee, and were full of enthusiasm and a desire to "go over yonder" and get "Bill's" goat. While many of them told of the place of their departure and their ultimate destination, censor regulations forbid their publication as a matter of public policy.

One of the men made the remark, as he gazed woefully at a battered old sign on a warehouse advertising a certain well-known Milwaukee liquid: "Well, fellows, that's as close as we will ever get to it again. The further South we goes the dryer it gets."

Yesterday morning another long train, a special, carrying twenty coaches, passed through Paris, from a Northern point, its destination being somewhere in the South. The coaches were filled with a cheering, enthusiastic crowd of soldiers, who made themselves at home while here.

On one of the coaches, a big placard had been hung from one of the windows. It bore the legend: "Oh, People, We Are On Our Way To Lick the Kaiser, And We Are The Boys Who Can Do It!" One of the soldiers, as he strolled along the platform, remarked, "From Paris, Kentucky, to Berlin. That's where we're going, sure!" As the train pulled out lusty voices were heard singing, "Over There."

PROJECT TO RESURFACE PROMINENT RESIDENCE STREET.

If plans now being considered by residents of Duncan avenue, one of the most prominent residence streets in Paris, are completed, that street will be resurfaced at an early date with asphalt, in order to reduce to a minimum the dirt and dust nuisance, which is sure to prevail this summer.

An expert engineer from Lexington was here Wednesday and submitted an estimate of the probable cost of the work, with a view to having the property owners on that street bear their proportionate share of the cost of reconstruction. The matter has been left in charge of Mayor January. It is the opinion that if the work is gotten under way other streets in the city will take on a like improvement in the same manner. The material to be used has been recommended on account of its permanency.

"Cleveland, Ohio, April 15, 1913.

Ed. THE NEWS, Paris, Ky.

"Dear Sir—I want you to know that I, personally, appreciate the splendid and generous manner in which you are handling Liberty Loan publicity—not only local publicity, but that which I have sent to you. There is no doubt that what you have done has been of material assistance in the sale of the Third Liberty Loan Bonds.

"If you have any suggestions to make I shall be more than glad to have them.

"Very Truly Yours,
"M. H. LAUNDON,
"Publicity Secretary."

GREATLY SURPRISED THAT EDITOR SHOULD HAVE MONEY.

In a recent issue of the Stanford Interior Journal, Editor Saundby has the following regarding Editor Alverson, who purchased the Wm. H. Whaley farm near Paris:

"News comes that Editor Jesse M. Alverson, of the Georgetown News, has just bought a 330-acre farm in Bourbon county for $68,000. This is good news to the writer, who in his earlier days in the newspaper business had Mr. Alverson on his pay roll, and who proved a most efficient and reliable employee. As full of energy as an egg is of meat, with the ability to see as deep into the millstone as the man who picks it, and a hustler in all the word means, we are not surprised at his success, but we never dreamed that he was getting so rich—$68,000! Just think of a newspaper man having that much money. Truly the day of miracles has returned."

OLEIKA TEMPLE TO MAKE A PILGRIMAGE.

About forty Shiners from Paris and the county will join the members of Oleika Temple, of Lexington, in a pilgrimage to be made to Covington on Saturday, May 4. Buffet luncheon will be served at the Temple at 11:00 a. m.

The big parade will form at 1:00 p. m., at the Temple and march to the Auditorium, led by the Covington Band and Drum Corps of Oleika Temple. All Nobles must be in the parade, as you cannot get into the Auditorium until the parading Nobles have passed.

The Ceremonial Session will begin at 2:00 p. m., and the banquet will be held at the Masonic Temple at 8:00 p. m. All Nobles of Oleika Temple will be allowed railroad fare on a basis from Lexington to Covington and return. Returning trains will leave Covington at convenient hours on Sunday, May 5.

GIVEN SUSPENDED SENTENCE.

Presented before Judge Batterton, in the County Court, Wednesday, on a charge of forgery, John Morris and Dan Moore, two sixteen-year-old youths, were given a suspended sentence to the Reform School at Glendale.

THE LEXINGTON RACES.

Despite a rain, which set in during the morning, and promised to continue throughout the day, thousands of people went to the Kentucky Association track Tuesday, to witness the "sport of the Kings" at the opening day of the Lexington spring meeting. The crowd was there, with all the familiar accessories that make racing one of the greatest pleasures to its devotees. Weber's Band, of Cincinnati, rendered a fine program of classical, patriotic and popular selections throughout the afternoon, and came in for a generous share of applause. This organization is always certain of a warm welcome in the Bluegrass region.

Twenty-five pari-mutuel machines, aided by a largely augmented number of cashiers, took care of the sportively-inclined, who wanted to try out their luck, and the betting on the various events was brisk during the entire time.

Bourbon county was, as usual, well represented by the sport-loving people, who made the journey in private conveyances, by rail and by the interurban, glad to be there or get there in any kind of way.

The winners of the opening day's events were as follows:

First Race—Bradley's Choice; Second race—Billy Kelly; Third race—Violet Bonnie; Fourth race—Opportunity; Fifth race—Sewell Combs; Sixth race—Exempted; Seventh race—Redland.

The talent played their favorites heavily. The best paying betting propositions of the day were Billy Kelly, in the second race, paying $21.30 for straight in the two-dollar mutuels. Redland paid $10.20 for straight in the seventh race.

Wednesday saw another large attendance at the track, and the talent had a good day. The features of the day's meet were the long shot victory of Bit of Blarney, in the third race, the two-dollar mutuels paying $294.80 for straight, and the dead heat in the fourth race between Diamond and Diversion.

The winners were as follows: First race—Squealer; second race—Henry Roberts; third race—Bit of Blarney; fourth race—Diamond and Diversion (dead heat); fifth race—Petrovan; sixth race—Fern Handley; seventh race—Yenghee.

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION.

The annual convention of the Seventh District W. C. T. U. opened its sessions in Lexington yesterday at First Methodist church. The business sessions are presided over by Mrs. Julia Gunn, of Lexington. Delegates from Paris, Millersburg, Little Rock, North Middletown and Spears Mills Unions are in attendance.

The convention will be in session again to-day. Bourbon county delegates will participate in the program as follows: "The Story of the Year"—Mrs. Gertrude Henry, president North Middletown; Mrs. Wm. Myall, president Paris; Mrs. W. T. Mitchell, president Spears Mill; Mrs. J. D. Redd, president Millersburg; Mrs. Edsell Clark, president Little Rock. The praise service at the opening of the afternoon session will be led by Mrs. J. D. Redd, of Millersburg.

Hundreds of Chinese perished recently at a race track when the stands collapsed. This will convince many people that racing is wrong.
